

Jeanna Booker Bio

Jeanna Booker's experience in the arts is both versatile and extensive. Following graduation from the Baltimore School for the Arts, Jeanna founded the 13:46 Dance Ensemble, a Christian-based dance company centralized in Baltimore City. Since its origin in 2012, 13:46 has extended its reach beyond Maryland to multiple locations including New Jersey, Tennessee, Georgia and Suriname South America. With an African-modern aesthetic, Jeanna's dance classes are in high demand. She travels internationally to facilitate, teach, and choreograph for a variety of conferences and events throughout the year. Ultimately, Jeanna is one who has embraced her natural gifts to, in turn, use them to revive and nurture the gifts within others.
